REPORTS RESISTANCE MOVEMENT IN HUNGARY

Printed pamphlets, signed by the "National Resistance Movement," have appeared recently in Budapest and other parts of Hungary. One of the pamphlets urges the unity of "the oppressed farmers, workers, and intellectuals" against the Communist terror, and also appeals to people whose dwellings are used by the deportees. "Treat the deportees decently, thus thwarting the diabolical scheme of Moscow to exterminate them," it states.

The latter pamphlet is being circulated especially in areas where deportees are living. Simultaneously, on the walls of houses and factory buildings, on fences, and on railroad stations large signs bearing the letters NEM, abbreviation of the National Resistance Movement (Nemzeti Ellenallasi Mozgalom), have appeared. The NEM slogan (the word also means "no") has spread throughout the country, and appears, not infrequently, on the houses of party functionaries.

An investigation has been begun by the State Security Authority to apprehend the originators of the NEM pamphlets.
